First I want to thank Mr. Rob Bibb for taking the time to comment in one of my articles here, which is the origin of this update about Rob Bibb and Blackwood Productions, (you can learn more about his services and products here). Straight to the point, as the title of this article say, I am still not 100% sure about my suspicions on the Blackwood Productions system harming my site, this site, in the SERP's and in my Page Rank. Yes I am not 100% sure even though, my suspicions started year ago (more less)

So the questions remain:- Why I am not 100% sure about those suspicions and its responsibility?- Are we mistakenly judging BP about it?- Do we have a real proof that BP wont hurt your site's PR and SERP's because of google penalization?- Why could Google penalize sites that are using the BP system or the like?Answers to those in my next update...
